

Ben Hogan Museum of Dublin

Honoring the golf legend in his childhood hometown. The story of the boy, the man, the golfer and the businessman. One of the most amazing come-backs in sports history as the elusive Mr. Hogan recovered from a head-on wreck with a bus to dominate the sport again. Open afternoons Fri-Sun or by appt. No charge.

121 E. Blackjack - P.O. Box 104

Dublin, Texas 76446 254-445-4466

benhoganmuseum@gmail.com www.benhoganmuseum.org

DUBLIN HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Step into "The Way We Have Lived" (1850s to present) in four overflowing rooms showcasing the community, its homes, churches, businesses, schools. A highlight is the Veterans' Memorial Room, dedicated to those who served or supported the military (1861-2018). Open daily 1-5 p.m. or by appt. No charge.

116 W. Blackjack - P.O. Box 155

Dublin, Texas 76446

254-445-4550

dublinhistoricalsociety@gmail.com

DUBLIN RODEO HERITAGE MUSEUM

The flavor of the rugged Old West combined with Hollywood glamor. Tour with a guide or stroll at your leisure through a magnificent collection of 1937-59 memorabilia of the World's Championship Rodeo Company, featuring Everett Colborn and Gene Autry. Open 1-5 pm Wed-Sat. No charge.

118 W. Blackjack, Dublin, Texas 76446

254-445-0200 www.rodeoheritagemuseum.org

www.dublintxchamber.com